What would you do?

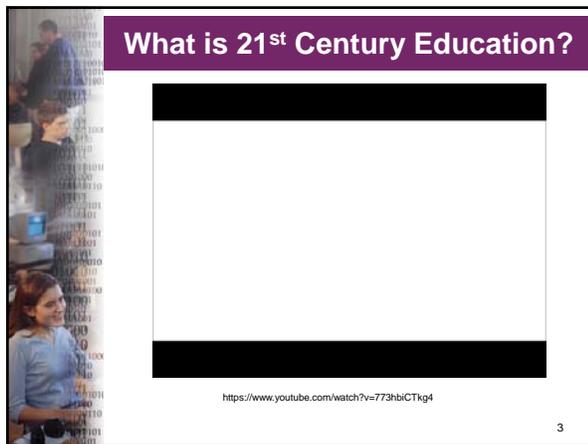

Is it OK to talk on your cell phone in public?

"Yeah, I got away from the office, finally and the beach is so peaceful. Can you hear the surf?"

5 Digital Etiquette

"I'm very conscious of phone etiquette. I keep my pinky finger up during the entire movie."

Comic written by Larry Lambert. Illustrated by Jerry King.

19

Just Curious

You're walking down the street and listening to your iPod when you run into someone you know.

Do you need to remove both earbuds to talk to them?

20

The Case of Ms. Shannon

Ms. Shannon, the Principal for Valley Adult Ed is expecting an important call from her sister out west.

However, she needs to attend the Opening General Session of a conference she is attending.

21

What Happened

She entered the ballroom and began to talk to several friends and colleagues. She forgot about the impending phone call.

During the keynote presentation, her cell phone rang, loudly. Everyone began looking in her direction as she struggled to find her phone. Because she was flustered, she began the conversation before she exited the room.

22

What She Should Have Done

She put her phone on vibrate and entered the ballroom.

During the keynote presentation, her cell phone vibrated and she quietly got up and left the room to answer the call.

That's being a Good Digital Citizen!

You overhear Jack, one of your students talking to Sarah, another student, about the new Blake Shelton CD that he picked up over the weekend.

Sarah replies, "Boy, I wanted to get that one too, but my paycheck was just enough to cover bills this week."

Jack says to her, "Don't worry, I'll just burn you a copy tonight, free!"
